

	Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Ineligible
Creative Efforts	Nominee demonstrates originality in educating & advocating; creates resources or content that others can use to advocate; nominee's efforts lead to specific outcomes, changes, or improvements in support of healthy, safe dance training.	Nominee uses available resources to advocate for healthy, safe dance training for children; shares resources with others to use in advocacy; high engagement level without clear, distinct outcomes.	Nominee uses resources and participates in programs when able; sometimes shares information and resources; generally supports efforts to promote healthy, safe dance training without distinct outcomes.	Nominee doesn't clearly advocate for healthy, safe dance training; doesn't utilize existing resources; doesn't demonstrate leadership in any area related to this cause.
Passion for Educating Others	Nominee actively, regularly engages in efforts to support healthy, safe dance training; inspires others to join the cause; makes sure shared resources are relevant and applicable; passion leads to newly established collaborations, partnerships, or programs.	Nominee integrates education about importance of healthy, safe dance training when able; without clear timeline or level of engagement; limited follow up post-collaboration or engagement; non-distinct outcomes.	Nominee educates others about the issues when asked; participates in events or programs when asked; limited use of resources to educate others about healthy vs harmful dance training; no discernible outcomes.	Nominee doesn't proactively educate or engage with others on this topic; participation limited to one-off experiences; doesn't demonstrate leadership in any area related to this cause.
Ways of Advocating	Nominee uses every way possible to educate about healthy/harmful dance; engages consistently and collaboratively for greatest impact; deliberately cultivates new partners and programs; generates impact through increased capacity to work across range of communities.	Nominee uses several ways to advocate; more collaborative than consistent in participation; accepts opportunities when able; impact occurs through support of other's endeavors in this area.	Nominee advocates in limited ways; does so sporadically, does not contribute resources or partner with others; impact and outcomes unclear.	Nominee doesn't proactively educate or engage with others on this topic; participation limited to one-off experiences; does not demonstrate leadership in any area related to this cause.
Inspires others to Action	Nominee inspires others to take action; lays out ways to do so; is a trusted and in-demand partner in this area.	Nominee regularly hosts opportunities for others to join the cause; clear mentorship of others beginning to participate.	Nominee encourages others to learn more about issue without clear ways to do so.	Nominee doesn't proactively educate others; doesn't demonstrate leadership in any area related to this cause.